CANADA'S THREE PER CENTS.

Hon. Mr. Foster was not present at their Success.

OUR CREDIT IS GOOD IN LONDON.

Subsides for New Projects Will Depend on Canada's Finance.

Board of Arbitration Not Needed Between Canada and the United States.

Reply of the Hon. Mr. Hurd.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—In an interview in regard to the success of the floating of the Canadian 3 per cent loan of £2,500,000, Mr. George E. Foster, Canadian Minister of Finance, said: "I am not at all sanguine as to the success of the loan, as the reception accorded to previous Canadian loans will not anticipate large subscriptions. No borrowing country has ever fulfilled as scrupulously its obligations toward the London market as Canada, and two countries are more so."

"Considering present conditions and future prospects half of the present loan will be applied to the purchase of bonds, and will be no conversion of the Canadian loan."

"It depends upon state finances whether further subsidies will be granted for commercial purposes, during the present session of parliament. The reduction of taxation of the last four years renders it imperative to expend money upon the most successful projects only."

"Canada has no intention to urge Great Britain to consent to the establishment of a permanent board of arbitration for Canada and the United States. The subjects of difference between these two countries are largely local and are becoming fewer. The relations between Canada and the United States are most cordial and friendly and there is no reason to suppose that they will be lessened."

Mr. Foster will sail for New York on Saturday on the steamer Canadian, en route to Canada. Mr. Foster will have an audience with Lord Salisbury, Secretary of State for the Colonies, before his departure, who sailed from New York on the Majestic yesterday, will fully consider the outstanding questions with the Colonial Office when he arrives.

The Allies Reply to Hurd.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—In a letter in the Times the Allies reply to Mr. Hurd's letter of the 28th inst. The Allies say that they have no objection to the payment of twenty cents could not be provided, but that they maintained that such a sum would not be sufficient to maintain the safety and the enormous cost of maintenance also could not be escaped from. The Allies also expressed their regret that the New York Journal of Commerce of October 28th had published a statement that the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Hurd, had said that the proposed Pacific cable scheme was "apparently" rejected. It was declared upon his word not to oppose it, and that it was necessary to protect his own interests.

THE TROUBLE AMONG THE GRAND TRUNK SHAREHOLDERS.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway of Canada met yesterday.

Mr. Henry Tyler had challenged the board and demanded a recount of the votes on the question of Mr. Seale's resignation from the board.

The result of the recount was a victory for Mr. Henry Tyler, whose presidency has been the subject of criticism by certain of the shareholders.

An analysis of the voting on the report showed that Mr. Tyler, who represented personally 1,222 votes, Mr. Seale and his supporters held 2,284 proxies, representing 27,406 votes, making a total of 28,628 votes.

Mr. Seale, who represented personally 6,706 votes, making a total of 11,328 votes, was defeated.

The amendment was therefore declared lost, and Mr. Henry Tyler, as chairman, declared carried his motion to accept the report and accounts as read.

By Lord Justice, "Out of the riot at the Grand Trunk meeting it is satisfactory to see that the directors are not prepared to give way to the shareholders."

GRASPING AVERAGE CAPITALISTS

--- ARE WHAT OUR COMPETITORS CALL US. ---

Grasping, because we want the Trade of the earth! Avaricious, because we hang on to the Almighty Dollar! Capitalists, because we have the money to tear them to pieces in the Wholesale Markets!!!

You can see what it amounts to. Success ever brings envy and distrust. If we were only half so successful, we would be feared only half as much as we are. Our push and principal alarm our competitors. Our business grip makes them wince. Our big sales excite their envy. Our popularity is what they cannot block and must put up with. Talk of big stocks! Shout of immense piles of goods! GOUGH knows about what big stocks mean. Throughout Ontario, in the best towns, GOUGH has clothing stores. It is a notorious fact that he does the trade of the town. He buys cheaper and carries more goods than all competitors combined.

His last great purchase of wholesale manufacturer's stock at 60c on the $ is a paralyzer. This stock was manufactured by E. A. Small & Co, Montreal and amounts to over $20,000. Owing to this immense stock a really new main store, we were compelled to open another store. We could not get it all into our main store. Remember, within six weeks we have captured two stocks amounting to over $50,000, and when we are in a position to sell these goods at less than the ordinary merchant buys for, we can prove it. Ask the railroad people who sell the most goods and they will tell you GOUGH, by ten times. Notwithstanding the low price of wheat, and the cry of hard times with other merchants, we are ahead and should be ahead of the best sales on record.

Keeping the right clothing, selling at the right price, and giving Right, Value in the Happiest Way, has done it. GOUGH is proud of his success. Vive la GOUGH!

NEWS FROM THE CAPITAL

The Work of Perfecting the Navigation of Lake Nipissing.

NEALE SENT TO STONY MOUNTAIN

The Quickest Instance of Canadian Justice on Record—He Got Seven Years—The Damages in Connection With the Sentence—Canal Lands—No Sale Ordered of the American Booms From Saginaw.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—W. P. Anderson, chief engineer of the Marine Department, has just completed the work of surveying Lake Nipissing, with a view of placing buoys and lighthouses where they would be most advantageous to navigation. The steamer Booth was placed at his disposal.
Mr. Anderson has reported that it will take sixteen buoys and several lighthouses, including a large one on the Manitou Island, to make navigation perfectly safe.

It is understood that Mr. Coste, the engineer of Public Works, who was North Bay at an early date in regard to improvements to the docks.

A telegram to Commissioner Sherwood says that Neale, the absconding sub-collector of St. Mary's, N. W. T., has been sentenced to seven years in the Stony Mountain Penitentiary. It was the end of September when Neale skipped out and he has been traced, caught and punished in about a month, the Atlantic having been crossed and returned in the meantime, thus forming about the quickest instance of Canadian justice on record.

A. F. Wood, ex-M. P. P. E. Meles, Government valuator for the Soo laque canal lands, has 50 claims of damages to dispose of out of 300. He has several important claims before him, chief among which are those of the sentimental estates, which the Government may have many civil actions to defend. It is understood Mr. Harwood will sue at once.

The controller customs has received from Sub-collector Fleisher at Saginaw river a despatch that no side has been ordered of the American boats brought over from Saginaw. The sub-collector writes that he has received no such side, and that in fact, he had no such formal seizure of material in question. It would appear further from this despatch to the controller that when the boats arrived to be held up for the winter, the controller thoroughly notified the owners that as manufactures of wood from a foreign country, they were liable to duty at 20 per cent. There was neither forcible seizure nor threatened sale.

Burglary at Lisle.

LISLE, Ont., Nov. 2.—H. H. Little's area and store and postoffice was robbed of some money and stamps. The burglars did not touch the safe. Three years ago the store was robbed, the safe broken and $275 taken. Since then Mr. Little has been more careful. It is believed a gang in the village did both burglaries, and that they know Mr. Little did not use the safe.

Severe Earthquake in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Nov. 2.—A severe earthquake, lasting more than half a minute, shook the city last night. People and horses were thrown down in the streets. It is not known that there was any damage, although houses were much shaken. Hundreds of persons fell on their knees in the streets and prayed.

ANOTHER PERRAULT CAPTURED.

Four of These Desperadoes Are Now in Jail at Parry Sound.

PARRY SOUND, Ont., Nov. 2.—Since the capture by Detective Greer about ten days ago of Penetanguishene of two of the Per-rault desperadoes, the celebrated Georgian Bay desperadoes, additional warrants were issued for the arrest of the two remaining brothers, and acting upon these Constables Greer and Quinn, of this place, the former a brother of Provincial Detective Greer, started out for Moon River, the suspected rendezvous of these notorious characters. The woods had to be penetrated for a short distance. The Perrault brothers had to switch the two paths that led to their camp. Upon the approach of the constables the dogs gave tongue and so apprehended the masters of the approach of danger. The officers made all haste forward and succeeded in capturing one of the men. The other, however, made off and escaped. Four of the Perrault brothers are now in jail here and will be sent to the district prisons here on Tuesday.

Close of the W. C. T. U. Convention.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—At the convention of the W. C. T. U. Convention yesterday Mrs. Butterfield presented the President with a beautiful bouquet of roses, which had been sent by a lady of Cornwall. Mrs. Thornley made a graceful acknowledgment. Several questions bearing on the work of the Union were discussed, strong exception being taken to the statistics published by the British Medical Association showing that there is greater poverty among those who use liquor than among total abstainers.

Several speakers said this statement was entirely incorrect, and claimed that temperance journals had published positive evidence that the conclusion arrived at was erroneous. In the afternoon a memorial service was opened. Mrs.
Gordon, of Ottawa, and Mrs. Carey, of Galt, addressed the meeting. The reports of the county presidents were then taken up, giving the standing of local unions. Hamilton was selected as the next place of meeting. The convention was then closed, and Mrs. Pratt, of Hamilton, addressed the children in the Knox church.

Funeral of Mr. Mevren.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—The funeral of the late Hon. Honore Mercier took place yesterday. The attendance was enormous.
All the windows along the route of the procession were draped with black. The palbearers were Mr. Alexander Lacoste, chief justice of the court of Queen's bench;
Hon. F. X. Lauder, M. P.; Hon. H. G. Joly de Lotbiniere, ex-prime minister of Quebec;
Hon. F. X. Marchand, Liberal M. P.; Quebec; Mayor Desautels, of St. Hyacinthe; James McShane, ex-mayor of Montreal; Judge Beaudette, of Thetford; Rivers, former law partner of the deceased; Robert Mackay, a prominent English-Johnston; L. David, president of the St.
Jean Baptiste society; and Hon. Pierre Gauthier, ex-minister of public works.
The service was celebrated at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Grand Boulevard.

Another Canadian in New Street.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—James Mullin, the Montreal man who was arrested here on a charge of embezzlement, was arraigned at the Bow street police court yesterday. It was stated that Mullin had embezzled a large amount of money, the proceeds of sale from a shipment of horses belonging to James Darling, of Montreal, and that he was charged with the same. Mullin was technically acquitted and released to be brought back by the magistrate, the prisoner was de-charged. He was immediately rearrested and arraigned at the Guildhall court.
Mullin was remanded until the 10th of November and admitted to bail.

DETERMINED TO DIE.

A Young Toronto Man Makes a Determined Attempt at Suicide.

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—Albert Laycock, a stenographer who recently worked in the law office of Mills & Mills, 3 Adelaide street east, made a deliberate attempt to take his own life by drinking about three quarters of an ounce of laudanum. The poison was taken with whiskey, a full bottle of which was in his pocket. Laycock worked several years for Mills &
Mills, and left two or three months ago.
It is said by Messrs. Mills & Mills that he tried to take his own life about a year ago.
The young man has been very despondent for some time, and on Thursday in the law office put a loaded revolver to his head and pulled the trigger. The weapon was at half-cock, however, and did not go off.
It was taken away and locked up in the safe. He also admitted taking a quantity of laudanum previous to this.

Laycock was taken to the hospital in the ambulance. He admits to the detectives that he had tried to kill himself, but would assign no reason for the rash act.
He declared if let go he would finish the job at once.

Crime in the Dominion.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—Business has been fair for dry goods throughout Nova Scotia, but the movement in other lines has been checked by mild weather. In New Brunswick the hotel business is in poor this season.
Jollies throughout Ontario continue to order for small lots and the result is a noticeably quiet market. Quebec had weather and the provincial holiday have not into business, although jobs in groceries report an increased distribution.
Midwinter trade prospects are not regarded as bright. The total number of failures reported in Canada this week is 46, as compared with 36 last week, 39 a year ago, 32 two years ago and 41 three years ago.
Bank clearings at Hamilton, Toronto,
Montreal and Halifax aggregate $16,972,- 000, as compared with $18,350,000 last week and as contrasted with $16,975,000 in the week of 1900.

Re-its of the French and Indian Wars.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 2.—A force of workmen were engaged in excavating around the remains of the historic old French fort in this city, overlooking the upper river. The massive stone chimney of this fort is still standing in perfect condition. The ground which the workmen excavated had not been disturbed in over a century and in one place two perfect human skeletons and a skeleton were found.
One of the skulls had a full set of teeth.
The bones are believed to be those of victims of the French and Indian wars, and of which are likely in this locality. The bones were divided among the workmen and relic hunters.

Struck by With-Songster Indians.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 2.—Sept. Levin, of the police force, has been severely injured from all being for shooting and killing a Pothens Indian named Billy on the Squamish reserve in this city. A party of Indians attacked the sergeant and a peculiar while they were around a roughly hauled, when Levin shot one of the Indians. They fled, but returned quickly with firearms and chased the officer back into the city.

Maritime Liberal Association.

ST. JOHN'S, N. B., Nov. 2.—The Maritime Liberal Association executive were in a large amount of money, the proceeds of
sale from a shipment of horses belonging to James Darling, of Montreal, and that he was charged with the same. Mullin was technically acquitted and released to be brought back by the magistrate, the prisoner was de-charged. He was immediately rearrested
and arraigned at the Guildhall court.
Mullin was remanded until the 10th of November and admitted to bail.

FASHIONS OF LONDON.

THE CLOAK REVIEW SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT'S LETTER.

Enormous Work That Devolves Upon a Minute Fashion Writer Now-a-days
The Latest Mantles and Jackets and the Current Vogue

In writing of styles it should be remembered that more interest is centered in what will be worn the next few months than a post-mortem of the vogue a score or more of years ago. The writer is under no obligation to write in minute detail the style of today finds an enormous task confronting him, and nowhere can this be more so than here in London. It has been our pleasure to visit some of the warehouses and a few notes taken on route may interest you.

Although the credit for producing the style is often given to certain social leaders, this is more frequently due to the publicity of the manufacturer. The effect of certain leading retail establishments adopting like styles of garments, and the playing the same, has more to do with determining the fashion than is generally supposed.

The tendency here is toward plainer materials, and the decorative of the ready patterns makes the work of designing more particular in producing effective combinations. Heavy trimming, which was so popular last season, has given way to the simplicity of the most material in the department. Applique is very popular, and its scope knows no limit, being the most suggestive to the most elaborate.

The jackets generally are longer, the skirt and the sleeves also have gained in dimensions. Jackets of covert coatings are very popular and have color sewing to be a leading favorite; tight-fitting jackets of fine cloth are extensively shown. Beaten-down coats, wraps, anoraks and cloche are popular materials, while a color over a camel-hairlike material is in the ascendency. Velvet also proves well. There is a marked tendency toward the return of the long skirt. The favor shown upon it is more marked for children's wear. The Dorothy shape is in the lead.

The silk waist, or evening blouse as it is called here, bids fair to be an attractive feature; they have full blouse sleeves, while the front and back openings are trimmed with black lace insertion.

The outlook for a large demand in fur garments is very promising. The low prices brought at the recent sale have placed this fur within the reach of popular demand and the result has been a revival. The three-quarter and jacket with a long collar, of the full length garment full sleeves generally prevail. Necklets of sable are popular, and black fox is considered a fine trimming for cloaks and capes. Of trimmings in general a large assortment is seen in every shop, and feather strips, the coloring of which are in plain and many fancy mixtures. Beaver and ostrich also remain in favor.

A French coat, similar to the men's smoking jacket, is in vogue. It is made of velvet and has an accompanying vest of the same or lighter material; the front is finished with long gloves and is closed with three buttons. Another stylish garment is a brown leather coat trimmed with skunk, showing collar and cuffs of the same fur; it has pearl buttons, striped seams, and at points on the sides are the pockets.

One of the children's coats shown was one of velveteen in a new shade, trimmed with fur, showing a large collar and full skirt. A red serge was also marked; it has the Cavalier collar. Another very stylish garment for the little girl is made of cream velveteen and has a single cape trimmed with mouton or a double cape of plume cloth.

The tight-fitting pelot, will grow in favor as the season advances. One of the leaders shown is a new sleeve patterned to the elbow, the collar and lower of which may be sable, skunk or black fox. A fine plume cloth jacket has the upper portion trimmed with ostrich feathers and jet buttons. Another is the dolman shape, with the back fitting to the figure and a deep pleated cape, the long ends of which are trimmed with jet and passementerie.

In seal jackets is a three-quarter with wide trimming; some are tight-fitting around the waist, with full skirt, while others fit close to the back and are open in front.

Stoles are seen in unlimited variety. A pretty one is of soft tan heavier cloth, trimmed with blue fox; this trimming is also popular for a variety of checked black cloths. A cape characterized as the "Three-Buckley" is also very widely shown; a pretty gold weave was made by trimming a group of seal or heavier serge with black fox fur. The Cavalier cape in French gray, black, tan, brown and navy, showing fur collar and cuffs, is popular with the young ladies, as are all of the fine seal cloths lined with colored skunk and trimmed with jet. A striking fur cape is in the butterfly shape, showing a high collar of heavy skunk, and a low and wide robe of black cloth. A distinctive feature is the sleeve, which shows a fine black and white puff to the elbow, then two frills and a smaller puff of black and light skunk cuffs to the wrist, the cuffs being turned back and faced with black silk.

A late novelty here is the handkerchief patch, which is filled with these necessary articles ready for use. Also one in gloves, made in all shades with points and buttons to match. The chief feature in these small neck cloths is around the neck to match the buttons—London Correspondence of the Cloak Review.

COUNTRY ROADS.

An Old Roadmaster on the Conditions for their Maintenance.

The building and care of roads by the localities themselves, the right of abatement property owners to the centre line of the road, subject to an easement for public purposes, and the most recent utility involved by such ownership, have important social aspects.

The making and care of a road under present local methods is founded upon road district patriotism. The archæan involves Godlike doing, for others, while the slough holes, pit fall sluices, and stone "juncos" from the stony heart of an unkept road, epitomize practical infidelity. Broad ideas, willing hands, and love of one's neighbor as one's self are supplementary to good neighborhood road building; these given, needed appliances will be forthcoming, and the perfect road emerges from pre-existent imperfections. In short, spirit controls matter, and "what spirit is as of" will determine the character of the roads in any locality.

If the spirit is for the road, then one of the first necessities is a good four-wheeled road machine. These machines are usually bought by the district to solve, in which case it is customary for three or more districts to club together for joint use and ownership. The pay for these machines is usually made in instalments covering from three to five years—the district paying one-half of the road machine, and working out the other half on the road. In some instances the towns have bought the machines outright, which is not so desirable, however, as for the districts to own them.

It has been the custom for towns to build all bridges larger than a six-foot span, and for the remainder supply piers and aid in building sluices, and roads less than a six-foot span. Towns are now beginning to buy cast iron water service pipes for all sluices, and supply them to the road districts for use. Such pipe is generally from 3 to 4 inch thick, which, imbedded in the gravel, stands the weight of heavy loads, even in muddy going, and will last for all time. Being round they are less liable to catch the road scrapers when working the road, and all annoyance and expense of rebuilding and repainting sluices is done away with, and the road is at all times entirely smooth and comfortable. Such pipe in carload lots can be bought at from 1 to 1.4 cents per pound—making the cost of a 12 foot, 4 inch sluice $2.67.

Width of road must depend upon conditions. Just wide enough and none to spare, and well taken care of, is better, but the road should be worked sufficiently wide so that teams are not compelled to travel in the same rut in muddy weather, and should be so crowned and flattened in the centre as to avoid water running in the tracks. Keep runways on sides of roads open and iron sluice pipes close, to prevent the road bed from washing out and the road itself cleared from loose stone. Such a road once made, needs but little care to keep it in condition—but that little is required.

Put theonus on road building and road working cheerfully, for what they do saves double their labor to the team itself in the course of the year, and the man gets his pay for the work, done three or four times over in the lessened wear and tear of himself and of vehicle, and the dividing debt of the commutation of his brother man who passes that way, repays it over again in the currency of the gods.

To remove rocks and such like obstructions, dynamite will be found very useful and cheap. Its use is simple and with ordinary care not dangerous. It costs but ten cents per pound. On dugways and sidehills use the road worker on the upper side only; drain the road bed with iron sluice pipes, at proper intervals, and leave the lower side for a path.

One day's working with Jack Frost when he lets loose in the spring, and again when he commences "journey work" in the fall, is worth two days without him in summer time.—D. W. Lewis, of Sherrack, N. Y., in Good Roads.

Too Much Advice.

I read a good many papers, almost all of which agitate the subject of road making in a general, theoretical sort of way. They advise the citizen to build them, advocate state taxation, the sale of government land, a whiskey tax, and other imaginary means, and all ways dodge the only practicable solution of the difficulty to my mind, I.e., the farmer and the citizen who want to do the work. Just as long as we keep looking for something or some body, nobody knows what or who, to do it, we are pretty sure to walk in the mud. When we are once thoroughly convinced of that fact, and we realize that good roads, if they come at all, come the same way as good houses, barns, fences and other improvements, come by individual effort and expense, we will soon be able to enjoy them. Judge Biggle says in the road to make the traveler miserable. Other judges say "Don't build in haste, but build a bed of mud the next time it rains." If there is any other available counsel, by suitable for making roads, we farmers would like to hear of it as those of us at any rate who live in this quarter of the globe don't like to trudge on air these things.—Woodland (Wash.) Letter in Rural New Yorker.

Dirt and mud are the alternative conditions of dirt roads.

George Vanderbit's Roads.

George Vanderbit is a true believer in good roads and has a laboratory on the estate, where an expert is employed in finding the best soil for the place as well as rock and stone for road formation. The result of these experiments, as well as those of agriculture, are freely furnished to all inquirers and put to practical use at Billmore. The result is that already around the estate at Billmore forest are ten miles of fine driveway as can be found in the vicinity of any large and prosperous city. But before the improvements are completed this length will be increased to fifty city miles. Macadamized stone, gravel, sand and clay are the principal substances used.

He also spoke upon growth in grace, the spiritual which, he said, filled the New Testament. And if man did not grow in grace, he was a slave of spiritual darkness.

Rev. E. N. Baker, pastor of Bridge St. Methodist Church, in the morning took for his text "Quarrel with the Father of the Faithful." As an emblem of purity, he said, they resembled man at birth before sin entered. The spirit of Christ, he said, was the man like the lilies in beauty, fragrance and purity. He also spoke upon growth in grace, the spiritual which, he said, filled the New Testament. And if man did not grow in grace, he was a slave of spiritual darkness.

Hink's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is a combination of several medicinal herbs which exert a most wonderful influence in purifying pulmonary condition and all other diseases of the lungs, chest and throat. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, and gives new energy to the system. Coughs, colds, shortness of breath, asthma, and all other diseases of the lungs, chest and throat, are cured by its use. No other remedy is so readily in giving information or leading to a cure, and the most distasteful cure is effected by its use. It is a valuable remedy. The number of deaths among children from these diseases is truly alarming.

It is so palatable that a child will not refuse it, and it is put at such a price that it will not be sold the poor from its benefits.

A weak mother's milk recently gave birth to four sons. All the children died but an hour after they were born.

WONDERS OF THE HAND.

ONE OF THE MOST EPOCH MAKING

Prof. Henry Dethlefsen, of the University of Copenhagen, Denmark, has just published a book on the "Wonders of the Hand."

One of the most important parts of the human body is the hand. It is the hand that has done the most for the world. It is the hand that has created the world of art and science. It is the hand that has built the world of commerce and industry. It is the hand that has saved the world from disaster. It is the hand that has made the world what it is today.

When it is considered that the hand is a part of the body that is so small, yet so powerful, it is not surprising that it is the hand that has done the most for the world. It is the hand that has created the world of art and science. It is the hand that has built the world of commerce and industry. It is the hand that has saved the world from disaster. It is the hand that has made the world what it is today.

Watch, in the next place, the hand of a man who is working. It is the hand that is so small, yet so powerful, it is not surprising that it is the hand that has done the most for the world. It is the hand that has created the world of art and science. It is the hand that has built the world of commerce and industry. It is the hand that has saved the world from disaster. It is the hand that has made the world what it is today.

AS YOU SIT. In a brown study during some leisure moment you are conscious of a certain depressed feeling, which, look what way you will, you cannot get rid of.

HOW TO REMEDY IT. Time as a bit's dull—sorry, more perhaps—after some thought you realize your mind is a bit dull—sorry, more perhaps—after some thought you realize your mind is a bit dull.

MAKING A WINDMILL.

HOW A SMART BOY CAN DO IT FOR PLEASURE OR PROFIT.

The Use of and Power Developed by Windmills—How to Make the Tower—And the Mill Including the Blades—The Wheel and Framework.

Did you ever make a windmill? Perhaps you never thought you could, but it is quite possible, being easy to construct with a tower as shown in the illustration, with the legs lengthened somewhat.

Such windmills of course can be put to many different uses such as generally of sufficient size to develop considerable amount of power—in other words they can be worked by steam and electricity to do any kind of grinding, grinding corn, pumping water and turning light machinery for various other purposes. The illustration shows a windmill that can be made of some wood and the aid of a hammer, saw, plane, brace and bit, two or three chisels and a square.

The tower in the first thing to get at. Obtain at a lumber yard three square timbers, 12 feet long, 4 inches square for the uprights, also several other of the same 3 inches square for the cross braces.

For the cross braces use two 2x4s and two 2x6s. The tower is to be made of these timbers, and the mill is to be made of the same.

From a piece of 3 inch square stuff cut a block 1 inch long through this block from end to end, bore a half inch hole and through from one side to the other cut a square hole measuring an inch and a half, the hole to be cut a pin stick 3 feet and 6 inches long, allowing 6 inches to protrude from one side of the block and the remainder to extend behind. Through the part that extends behind cut a slot half an inch wide into which the fan tail is to fit and be fastened.

In the front end of the shaft bore a half inch hole and into it drive a round iron having a threaded end on which a nut turns. A blacksmith can make this for you at slight cost.

Your shaft and screw block complete will then look like Fig. 4, and will rest on the line pins placed in the shaft in the center of the tower.

A fan tail is to be cut from pine half an inch in thickness and fastened to the shaft with screws. This tail should be thirty inches long and fifteen inches wide at the large end.

The use of this tail is to guide the mill into the wind and also the same as a weather-vane, tail guiding the mill to point in the direction from which the wind is blowing.

The wheel can be placed on the iron at the front of the shaft and held in place with a nut. The nut must not be screwed so tight that it will not allow the mill to revolve easily, and your complete windmill will then be finished.

All the woodwork can be painted some light color and the iron black, to prevent it from rusting. The bearings should be lubricated with vasoline or some other oil. The mill can be used for any purpose for which it is desired.

—J. H. Adams, in St. Louis Republic.

An Elegant Apron.

This lovely apron is made of plain Swiss muslin, trimmed with scanty frills of embroidered Swiss, edging and satin-edging. The bib is shaped like a triangle with cloth straight away from the top, and the apron is cut at the center allows the edge to turn over like a revers.

The gored skirt has a narrow band of satin edging, and is tucked a ribbon girle to match the other ribbon decorations; the ribbons may all be removed when the apron is to be washed. But the pocket, after all for all such aprons, is the best of all. (In these pocketless days one might almost be tempted to wear an apron to church for the sake of the pocket.) Such aprons form very dressy adjuncts to an afternoon toilet, especially for a hostess who serves tea or lunch to guests. Any suitable material from prints and gingham to satin and tulle may be used for the apron, and the design—F. P. Scribner, in Farm and Home.

Simple Remedy for Earache.

"I am afraid I have greatly interfered with my own practice," said a celebrated physician, "by giving the following advice to many of my friends. At the first symptoms of earache, let them put a little of the oil of sweet almond on the ear with the painful side uppermost. Fold a thick towel and tuck it around the ear, so that the ear is held in the ear with warm water. Continue doing this for fifteen or twenty minutes; the water will fill the ear orifices, and flow over on the towel. Afterward turn over the head, let the water run out, and plug the ear with warm glycerine and cotton. This may be done over and over until relief is obtained. It is an almost invariable cure, and has saved scores of acute cases of deafness. Warm water should be quite warm, but not hot."

FRUITFULNESS OF THE POTATO
To the majority of people, there are only two classes of potatoes, the good and the poor. Farmers recognize four principal classes, but with the experts who make a study of their development the classes go far beyond such a simple division, while the number of varieties is something enormous. In a single potato lot, there may be as many as 100 varieties, and the number of varieties in the whole world is estimated at 1,000.

Carried on to increase the quantity of starch in the potato have met with success.

In Canada attention has been directed rather to the position of the potato than to improvement by selection within a variety. These new varieties are produced every year, and with one exception that has some quality which makes it superior to preceding sorts, it is sure to find a foothold with potato growers and so takes its place in a market variety in the class to which it belongs.

Most of these varieties are the product of careful crossing of the tubers, and the greatest share of the improvement is in the quality of the seedling. When one is produced that possesses such characteristics as to separate it from all its predecessors, it becomes the founder of a new class. Each variety derived from it, and resembling it more or less, is given a name to distinguish it from other varieties, but all belong to the same class.

so that while growers recognize both variety and class, dealers acknowledge only class only.

The four principal classes are the Burbank, Hebron, Rose and Peerless, the three first being for fall and winter use and the last for spring and early summer use. In deciding which variety to plant, it is well to consider the demands of the market which is expected to receive the potatoes, and the kind of soil and treatment required. Each variety has its likes and dislikes, and it will pay the grower to gratify them.

In order to distinguish the different types of potatoes, it may be said that the Burbank class includes all white kidney-shaped potatoes, the Hebron varieties at this time being "Morning Star," "White Star," "Daisy," "White Flower," "Dutton's Seedling," etc.

The Hebron class includes all flesh-colored or pink and white-kidney potatoes, the principal varieties being "White Elephant," "June Eating," "Gem," "Garfield," "Albino," etc.

The Rose class includes all red potatoes, but is not so numerous as the other three.

New York, Nov. 26.—Special cable to

The Star: The Hon. Edward Blake has been a great deal of trouble in the course of a speech to his constituents the other day he hinted at his intention

He announced to-day that he would

It is also possible that the speaker within the party during the last few months has been a great deal of trouble him. There is good reason to believe, that Mr. Blake has been greatly

DEATH CLAIMS TWO OF OUR PROMI-NENT CITIZENS.

Sheriff Hope Passed Away This Morning
John T. Warrington, Sheriff of the County, who followed him a few hours later.
An Old Politician Count. John Kemp of whom little is known.

Although it was announced in yesterday's issue that a serious change for the better had taken place in the condition of Mr. John T. Warrington, Jr., yet the announcement of his death at 10 o'clock this morning shocked every one who heard the news, which was wholly unexpected. It is all the more so, as he had been ill for some time, and his medical advisers had considered that he could not survive the day.
Mr. Warrington was born in 1832, and aged, and recovered from that illness, which left him as very weak, however, he was unable to leave his residence.
He was progressing so favorably up to yesterday that at 10 o'clock this morning he sent a message to Mr. W. S. Cook, his business manager, stating that he had fallen ill, and that he was unable to leave his bed. He came up to his dwelling at 11:30 and then retired to his room, and was found with acute congestion of the lungs, and died at 10 o'clock.

THE LATE JOHN T. WARRINGTON, JR.

and before the time set for his funeral with Mr. Cook had become incapable of transacting business, and gradually sank until death sealed him as above stated.
The deceased was the oldest son of John T. Warrington, one of the merchants of Liverpool, England, in which city he was born about forty years ago. He inherited his father's love of a mercantile life, he came to Montreal twenty-two years ago, and settled in Belleville, and in a short time became one of the largest dealers in dairy produce in this district, his dealings aggregating over a million dollars per year. This vast trade was carried on with satisfaction to the parties with whom he dealt, and with profit to Mr. Warrington, who was a most satisfactory employer of his honor, and his capability as a business man was well known to all concerned in the same. He was the same effect in his life as he was in his death.
The late John T. Warrington, Jr., was born in the County of Hastings, and was the son of John T. Warrington, Sr., who was a merchant of Liverpool, England.
He was born in 1832, and was a most satisfactory employer of his honor, and his capability as a business man was well known to all concerned in the same. He was the same effect in his life as he was in his death.

It may be added that he was a Conservative in politics, but did not take any active part in election matters.

During his residence in Montreal he married Miss M. E. E. Berlin, who was the daughter of a prominent family. They were married in 1858, and had three children—two sons and a daughter—surviving him. The daughter will be described as a very accomplished young lady, and is now in Paris, where she is being educated. To the afflicted widow and family, the bereaved father and relatives, we tender the sympathy of all who know him when they mourn.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. on Friday at the residence of the late

COURIER NEWS.

Mr. Robert B. Langham, the able, active and wide-awake Secretary of the Ontario, the Union of Ontario, has been down in Nova Scotia taking a look over the field politically, and his impressions have been given to the press through an interview with a Montreal correspondent. Mr. Langham is a prominent member of the Ontario, and his impressions have been given to the press through an interview with a Montreal correspondent.

"They are a splendid people. The old and Caudin family is rapidly disappearing in Nova Scotia, and many of the most loyal sons of the island live in the mainland provinces. The reports already published of the late John Langham in his native province have been in no way exaggerated. He has been all over the province, has met with the leading men of Nova Scotia, and the emphasis of his opinion is that the Government will not lose a single vote which they now hold. As for Cape Breton Island, everyone, both Old and Conservative, and even Liberals, Victor, Richmond, and the two Cape Breton county seats, to the present Government. In fact the Liberal Conservative party has never been so vigorous and hopeful in that end of Nova Scotia as at the present time."

"Were you in Mr. Fraser's country?" asked the correspondent. "Yes, we were in Guysboro, a good deal, and there was little doubt that Mr. Fraser's political life is in a very bad way. Mr. Forbes, who will run in the ministerial contest, is a native of the county, is immensely popular with all classes, and his name is considered certain. As far as I can see, the idea that he is a candidate is not far from the truth. He is a very able man, and never has the party been in better shape for a triumph over Griffiths. Sir John and Sir Charles are personally popular all over the province, and will carry their respective counties with a rush."

"What about New Brunswick?" asked the correspondent. "That province, too, is all right, although they are perhaps more undecided as to candidates than in the sister province."

A Child Expires. The pleasant river, gentle action and nothing of the kind of the river, in the use of a laxative, and if the father or mother be gentle or bilious, the most satisfying results will be seen. It is in this last family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle on hand.
